Your Business – Our Passion

"In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity."

Albert Einstein

As your business grows, there will naturally be hurdles along the way:

- Operational challenges
- Performance issues
- Customer attrition
- Team dysfunction
- Employee turnover
- Untrained workforce
- Inexperienced leaders
- New technologies
- Market competition

And that's a good thing!

At ULE, we see business hurdles as a chance for you to redefine priorities, develop new strategies, and refocus teams for future success. They present opportunities to strengthen your organizational infrastructure and foster growth, possibly resulting in:

- Better profitability;
- More efficient operations;
- Enhanced levels of customer satisfaction, generating additional sales and business growth;
- A more productive, engaged, and resilient workforce;
- Increased employee satisfaction and retention, attracting top talent to your ranks;
- Teams that take pride in quality, service, learning, innovation, and continuous improvement;
- Your business being recognized as a market or industry leader.

BY THE NUMBERS

1

By 2025:

- 75% of the U.S. workforce will be Millennials.
- 33% of Millennials highly value training and development opportunities in the workplace. (Source: Price Waterhouse Cooper)

2

A team's success is greatly influenced by its manager's ability to lead by example, remove performance obstacles, coach, motivate, follow-up, and provide support to all team members. Yet:

- 26% of managers feel they are inadequately trained, and are unprepared for their leadership roles.
- 58% admit they received no management training.
- 60% fail within 24 months in their position. (Career Build Survey)

Your Partner of Choice

ULE can help you identify your team's hidden opportunities, and turn them into competitive strengths.

Because People are key to every organization's success, we offer an array of Professional Learning and Development services, including:

- Performance Consulting (leadership and workforce)
- Instructional Design (learner-centric, interactive, and application-based for classroom, virtual, and e-learning solutions)
- Curriculum Development (targeted tactical and strategic learning plans)
- Professional Development (enabling leaders, subject matter experts, and trainers to lead and deliver training to their teams more effectively)
- Facilitation (in-person and web delivery)
- Assessments and Evaluations
- Coaching and Mentoring

Every small step your team takes today helps to mold your organization's legacy.

We are honored to partner with you to create that future.
